November: A Season of Thanks, Honor, and Kindness

As we celebrate Thanksgiving, let us give thanks for our families, friends, and the blessings in our lives. May we remember those who are facing difficult times and share our kindness and generosity with others.

Let us also be kind and grateful to those who have lent us a hand during our own difficult times. Their support, compassion, and friendship deserve to be remembered and appreciated.

November also gives us the opportunity to honor our veterans, on Veterans Day, November 11. Let us thank the men and women who have served our country for their dedication and sacrifice, and show our appreciation through kindness and support throughout the year.

Celebrate the magic of the Christmas season at Christmas Tree Lane this December! Join us Sunday, December 6th, at 12:30 p.m. Enjoy beautiful Christmas trees, holiday cheer, and time together with friends and fellow Elks.

Members, groups, and businesses donate and decorate Christmas trees and donate gifts for families to help them enjoy the holidays.

Tickets are on sale! Get yours and join us as we welcome the season with warmth, friendship, and Christmas spirit!

As we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, the newborn King, may His message of love, peace, and hope guide our hearts and our actions throughout the Christmas season.

The Christmas season reminds us to cherish our families, our friends, and the people who touch our lives. It is a time to practice kindness, speak honestly, and treat one another with compassion and respect.

Our words and actions matter. Spreading rumors, making false accusations, or acting out of spite can hurt people long after the season ends. Let us choose understanding over anger, seek the truth before judging, and make room for forgiveness.

Let us honor our veterans, be thankful for our blessings at Thanksgiving, and carry the Christmas spirit in how we care for and treat one another, not just during the holidays, but every day.

With thanks and warm holiday wishes,
Imelda “Mel” Hunkin
Esteemed Leading Knight

November:
A Month of Gratitude and Service

November is a month that reminds us to be thankful: for our families, our friendships, ourcommunity, and the FREEDOM we enjoy every day.

This month, I am especially proud that we will once again come together for our VeteransDay Lunch on November 11. This event is incredibly special to us because it gives ourlodge an opportunity to personally say “thank you” to the men and women who haveserved our country. Our doors will open at 10:30 a.m., with lunch served from 11:00 a.m.to 1:30 p.m. Veterans are our guests and eat free, and non-veterans are welcome to joinus for $ 20.00. The Dave Alcantar Band will perform live music from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00p.m. Please RSVP by November 7.

If you are a veteran, we hope you will join us and allow us the privilege of honoring you. Ifyou are not a veteran, come anyway! Sit down with someone who served, share a meal,listen to a story, enjoy the music, and simply spend time together. Sometimes the mostmeaningful way to show our gratitude is simply to be there.

And, of course, November brings Thanksgiving. Amid the turkey, family gatherings, andeating a little more than we planned, Thanksgiving gives us a chance to slow down andremember just how much we must be grateful for. I am thankful for the friendships weshare at our lodge, for the members who volunteer and lend a hand when needed, and foreveryone who helps make our lodge feel like a community.

Gratitude and justice go hand in hand. Recognizing what others have done for us, andtaking the time to say thank you, is one of the simplest ways we can show appreciationand respect for one another.

So, this November, let us celebrate our veterans, enjoy Thanksgiving with the people welove, and take a moment to appreciate the friendships and fellowship we sometimes takefor granted.

Military Moment: November 10th is the birthday of the United States Marine Corps,followed by Veterans Day on November 11, a day when we honor all who have served inthe United States Armed Forces.

Thank you to all who served and continue to serve.

With gratitude,
AnhThu Nguyen, Esteemed Loyal Knight

From Our Lecturing Knight Bob Piche

A Message From the Station of Brotherly Love

Welcome to the month of Thanksgiving and to remember our Veterans. November is a perfect time to show brotherly love.

It is a time to honor our veterans, the men and women who have fought, and sometimes given the ultimate sacrifice for our peace and freedom, their lives. So, if you meet a veteran, maybe at our lodge, simply say, “Thank you for your service”. A simple gesture of gratitude goes a long way in letting them know how much their sacrifice is.

This is also a time to be thankful for your family and friends. Help them out if they need a hand or someone to talk to. That’s what brotherly love is all about.

Let me close by saying to all my friends at the Elks Lodge, “Happy Thanksgiving”!

Your Lecturing Knight,
Bob Piche

Joanne Haugen, PER, niece's breast cancer has returned, and she is not doing well. Prayers for the family, especially the close family, are appreciated. They are having a difficult time with her diagnosis.

Steve Vartanian spoke with PER Tom Conlon. He was just coming home from hospitalization.

Felix reported that Vicki Schmitt, a new member's mother, had a stroke and is not doing very well. There was a clot in the carotid artery. She is presently in a care facility and has paralysis on her left side. Recently, she was able to be visited by her dog, and that really brightened her day. She thanks everyone for your prayers.

Leo Dave Judy passed away on 9/15/2026. He was known at the lodge as Dave Senior. He will be remembered as a karaoke singer. His signature song was, "Mule Skinner Blues". Please say prayers for Dave Judy's family.

Jerry Wolf cannot come to the lodge because he is immunocompromised as a result of his leukemia treatment.

PER Tom Conlon is not doing well; he is feeling fatigued and sleeping a lot. He has been in and out of the hospital.

Elk Member Smitty was at St. Jude and has been moved to a skilled nursing facility, but he is on the road to recovery.

Update on Bailey Wadsworth: She is getting stronger every day. She can lift herself up and maintain her balance while holding onto the kitchen counter.

A Little Something to Think About…

The Days We Keep Putting Off

You know that friend you've been meaning to call? The lunch you've been saying you should schedule? The little trip you've talked about taking for years?

Funny how quickly "one of these days" turns into "where did the time go?"

We spend so much of our lives waiting for the perfect moment. When things slow down. When the weather is better. When we have more time. When life isn't quite so busy.

But here's something worth thinking about: What if the ordinary moments we're putting off are actually the ones that matter most? That cup of coffee with an old friend doesn't need a special occasion. Neither does a phone call to someone you miss, an afternoon spent laughing, or an evening surrounded by good company.

And sometimes, the best memories begin with the simplest invitation: "Hey, what are you doing Friday?"

Life has a way of reminding us that time is precious. Not to make us sad or sentimental, but to encourage us to enjoy the opportunities right in front of us.

So this month, make the call. Plan the lunch. Take the drive. Sit a little longer at the table. Say yes to something you might normally put off.

And the next time you walk through the doors of the Lodge, look around. There's a pretty good chance that some of life's best moments are sitting right there, waiting to happen.

Just a little something to think about…
