From Our Exalted Ruler

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Shining the light of Elkdom

July is celebration time! We kick off the month with our Fourth of July bar-b-que celebration as proud Americans. Our Lodge's 71st birthday will be celebrated on Friday July 8th – Join us for dinner and dancing, birthday cake, party favors, and prizes!

I'm proud to announce the return of Teenager of the Month and our second Special Child recognition! Please join us on the second and third Lodge meetings of each month. These programs are so important and near and dear to our hearts.

Come say Aloha at our Luau on Saturday, July 23rd and you definitely don't want to miss our Classic Car Show on Sunday July 31st!

The B.P.O.E. 157th Grand Lodge Convention will take place in Atlanta, Georgia the first week of July. I'm honored to attend and represent our lodge and look forward to learning more about how we can enhance our programs, member experiences, and communications.

Hope to see you at the Lodge soon!

Fraternally Yours,

Marie P. Nunez, Exalted Ruler

FIDELITY

Fullerton Elks in the Community

Fullerton Elks hosted a Drug Awareness Booth at the Good Life Celebration, organized by Lot 318, at the Gomez Community Center in Placentia, on Monday May 30, 2022. This event converted the local neighborhood park of the disadvantaged community called Atwood, into a gregarious family-oriented event, filled with positive activities and wellness information for children and their parents. Our lodge was also one of the sponsors for a fun carnival style game and rides area.

New Elk Statue for Lodge 1993

Fullerton Lodge's new elk statue was unveiled on May 26th, 2022 by our newly installed CHEA Association Vice President Allen Bisbee. Thank you to all our lodge elks who organized and provided funding!

From Our Leading Knight

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Tonight, I am writing my article by the campfire at the Oceano Elks Lodge. I am here with our Lodge's camping group for a week of fun and sunshine. When I became an Elk I never imagined the amount of friends and memories I would make. Enjoy every moment that is given.

I found that the more I got involved at the lodge over the years, the more friends I made. Little things like attending events, volunteer on events, helping our charities and becoming an officer have been very rewarding over the years. I hope you find as much joy as I have.

Happy birthday to this great country of ours!!!

CHARITY

"America is another name for opportunity." — Ralph Waldo Emerson

From Our Loyal Knight

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

As the Loyal Knight I have the honor each month of performing a small part in the new member initiation. Even though it's the longest meeting of the month, it's also my favorite, because let's face it, I look good in a Tux. Part of my charge is to advise our new members of their duty to be familiar with the Statues of the Order and the By-Laws of our Lodge. Of these rules, none is more important than our conduct when interacting with our volunteers and Lodge employees. Complaints should be directed to the duty officer or Lodge Manager. Always keep in mind that our volunteers pay the same dues as everyone else, the only difference is they are also donating their time and energy to ensure the continued operation of our Lodge. Keeping that in mind, let us all conduct ourselves as true and upstanding Elks both in our lodge and while visiting another lodge and remember, it cost nothing to offer a smile and a thank you to those who step up to volunteer.

Fraternally,
Bill Swaim

From our Lecturing Knight

What makes a great leader?

Good leaders must know their responsibility. The person must have enough knowledge in being a leader to be able to make good decision for their peers.

A good leader has been shown to have great communication skills, good decision making skills, is very analytical, knows their responsibilities, and most importantly, confidence and responsibility.

A good leader does everything confidently and encourages this confidence in others. He or she cheers up people and makes them feel that they are needed and that they are doing everything well.

To sum up, a good leader is likely to be a confident, responsible and honest person with outstanding analytical and communication skills. Certainly, this is not the whole list of qualities and skills but the mentioned ones are obligatory and irreplaceable

George Neri Esteemed Lecuring Knight

Photographers Needed

Additional photographers are needed to document our Lodge activities and charitable works at our Lodge and in our surrounding communities. Professional cameras are not required; only general comfort in taking nice photos. Additional minor training will be provided by Cory Brown, Public Relations Chair.

If you are interested please contact Marie Nunez, Exalted Ruler (714-906-2750), or Cory Brown (kg6ep@verizon.net). This is an excellent opportunity to volunteer for the Lodge! Your photos may end up in one of the Elks magazines or in local newspapers!

Help Save a Tree

Printing and sending the Hilltop Bugle is expensive and also uses valuable resources.

Please contact the Lodge Secretary at FullertonElksLodge1993@gmail.com to be sure you are only receiving this publication electronically. The money we save can be put to use for our charities.

Fullerton Hilltoppers Camping Club News

The Hilltoppers ventured to the Launch Pointe Campground in Lake Elsinore for their May outing. Friends and family members joined us to round out our reservations at this beautiful resort.

The group played rousing games of Bocce Ball and Corn Hole. The Wagon Masters, Brian McNamara (Diana was unable to attend) and Co-Wagon Masters, Anton & Marie Patricio, did a great job setting up the group area and providing the camp out dinners! They also donated a beautiful basket that was raffled off to benefit Christmas Tree Lane. Basket winner, Mark Gruenke, donated the basket to the Hemet Rally in October! Thank You Hilltoppers!

The club heads to the Santa Maria Rodeo and the Oceano Lodge in June!

If you are interested in the Hilltopper's Camping Club, please contact me at (714) 993-1209 or FullertonHilltoppers@gmail.com for more information!

SPECIAL CHILD PROGRAM TEAM

Team Leads: Nyada Turner, 12-year member and Irene Imhoff, 13-year member

Team Members: Life member, Bob Turner; 1-year member, Gaby Rossberg; 27-year member, Mariann Aita; 13-year member; Steve Marciano

This month's Volunteer Spotlight shines on the Fullerton Elks Special Child Program Team. Since initiated at Fullerton Lodge in 1985 by PER-Lloyd Johnson, hundreds of children and their families have been honored. Except during COVID, 8 to 10 children are hosted each year, which includes a meet and greet, dinner, and a formal presentation during the Lodge meeting. The team is very diligent and conscientious about engaging with each family and learning about each child's therapeutic needs. These are taken into consideration as the Lodge tries to put a smile on their face and present gifts that correspond to those unique needs. Team-member Irene, was introduced to the program and our lodge, when her grandson, Nate was honored under then Special Child Chairman, PDDGER Scott Stephens.

The Special Child Program Team engages many lodge and family volunteers to assist with annual Special Child events. These events began with the annual Special Child Christmas party for many years and were expanded beginning 2021 to include a Halloween Trunk or Treat and an Easter Bunny Hop in 2022. With wonderful guidance from the Special Child Program Team, Lodge members are able to generously donate funds or gift cards, wrap presents, prepare and serve meals, and assist with both set-up and clean-up. Our Special Child families and children are certainly part of our Elks family!

JULY 2022 - FRIDAY NIGHTS

DINNER 5:30–7:30

MUSIC 6:30–10:30

JULY 1 – NIGHT GROOVE totally rocks our lodge whenever they're here. With their wide range of music from Top 40 to Latin, to our favorite oldies and dance tunes, they've rapidly become one of our most requested bands.

JULY 8 – COYOTE SUNRISE wowed us with their performance at our Hoe-Down in April, and we are thrilled to have them on a Friday! With their country/pop/rock style, they are a favorite at all our Orange County lodges. Come up and join in the fun!

JULY 15 - THE 5 STAR BAND 'exploded' at the Fullerton Elks Lodge and have become a crowd favorite. With several vocalists and a variety of instruments, their assortment of Rock, Pop, Blues, Swing & Country is ALWAYS a delight!

JULY 22 – THE ROCK-ITS are BACK on Fridays! If you grew up in the 60's, you'll remember them as the CA beach band, the "Chan-dells", opening for Sonny & Cher, Little Richard, and Jan & Dean. They are Talent PLUS, and always a sell-out, so make your reservations early!

JULY 29 - ONE LAST SHOT surprised us all with their outstanding performances of all our favorite pop, rock, Latin, and swing tunes. You won't want to miss this high energy band as they return to Fullerton Elks Lodge!

Veteran's Corner

The barbecue at Placentia Veterans Village was moved to Monday, July 18. The Village is located at 1945 Veterans Way, Placentia. We need volunteers to set up, cook, run the raffles and clean up. We will meet there at 10:30 a.m. In addition to serving lunch, we will be providing non-perishable food items, laundry and cleaning supplies and hygiene items to the residents. Contact us to volunteer or donate items.

Hero Labradors are on the move! Chuck Ziegenfuss, founder of Hero Labradors, is on a puppy delivery run through 17 states. Chuck bears the entire cost from pre-conception testing to delivering the puppies to their service dog training programs. His mission is to provide service dogs to veterans at no cost. If you can help with gas money, please make a donation at <https://www.herolabradors.org> or contact us.

Save the date! We will participate in a Stand Down for homeless veterans on August 17, 9am-3pm. The VA is requesting non-perishable food items, hygiene kits, new t-shirts and socks. More information will be available after July 15 and will announced at our Lodge meetings, Wednesday night dinners and on the Lodge Facebook page.

The Only Vivian

Charles Vivian, the mere mention of his name drew blank looks from the men sitting at my table. This would not have seemed odd to me had I been talking with old friends from work, but I was sitting with Elks, and speaking of the Founder of our Order. I suppose I could cut them a little slack, he had after all been dead for 141 years. But it got me thinking that maybe we could use a little history refresher. The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks has been one of the largest and most successful fraternal organizations in the country. It has done so because it maintains the original principles of the Order that made it successful in the first place. Our Constitution, statues of the Order, and the by-laws of our lodges assist us in this endeavor and ensure that the vision of our founders is realized and continued. And so in order to move into the future, we must also remember our past. There were fifteen original founders but the one that got it all started, was Charles Vivian.

Born in England, 1846, he was the son of a clergyman but rather than follow in his father's footsteps, his calling would be one of entertainer. By his teen years he was already an accomplished comic, skilled in character sketches and impressions. At the age of 21 he made the journey to America and arrived in New York Harbor in 1867. The Civil War had ended just four years prior and as Americans began to get life back to normal, there was a desire for entertainment and Charles was just the man to give it to them. As luck would have it, that first day Charles walked into a tavern, which on that night, encouraged the patrons to get up and sing. His performance was not only well received, but witnessed by Robert Butler, manager of the American Theatre on Broadway, who remarked that Charles "was the best singer he had heard all year, and it was nearly Thanksgiving." He hired him on the spot at a wage of fifty dollars a week.

Charles had an unquenchable desire to make others happy and it was said of him that he succeeded in enabling them for a time, at least, to forget the trials and cares of everyday life, while listening to this prince of entertainers. He was such a unique talent that he became known as "The Only Vivian," for there was no equal. He would soon band together with fifteen of his fellow entertainers and form a private club known as the Jolly Corks. This was originally done to circumvent the law in New York City that prohibited taverns from being open on Sunday. The men found a meeting place at 17 Delancey Street and charged a membership fee of two dollars. Not long after, his good friend and fellow entertainer Ted Quinn died leaving behind a young wife and three children. It was then that this private drinking club would turn its attention to looking out for the welfare of its members and so was born the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, formally established in New York City on February 16th, 1868. A month later they adopted a constitution to "promote, protect, and enhance the welfare and happiness of each other."

The rapid expanse of the Elks is best explained by the professions of its original members. They were entertainers that travelled across the country to perform in big cities and small mining towns and as they moved about the country, they established new lodges from New York to San Francisco. It was in San Francisco, home of Lodge #3, that Charles would meet his future wife, Imogen. They would marry in Oakland CA in 1876 and perform together as they traveled across the country. Four short years later they would travel to the mining town of Leadville Colorado. The town sat at an altitude of 11,000 feet and was experiencing a harsh winter. Charles had difficulty breathing at that altitude and fell ill with pneumonia. He died seven days later at the age of 34 on March 20th, 1880.

The Chicago Times, in an obituary, said "No man in the profession had so wide a circle of admiring and warmly attached friends among the younger men of this city. No man's company was ever sought with more eagerness, or more thoroughly enjoyed. He was a story teller without equal; a wit and a songster.

He was originally buried in Leadville, but nine years later, Boston Lodge #10 moved his body to Mt. Hope Cemetery in Boston, where he rest to this day.

As a regular volunteer for our Friday night dinners I have made it a habit, after the food has been served and the kitchen cleaned, to retire to the patio with my martini in hand, to enjoy the fresh air and a few minutes of silence. Often I have looked back through the windows into the club area to see the band playing, the dance floor full, and our members sitting around their tables laughing and enjoying themselves and thought, here is the result of one mans vision that still lives on 153 years later. He would have loved this, and he would have been the life of the party.

To our absent members, to the only Vivian.

To learn more about Charles Vivian, you can get the book, A Biographical Sketch of the Life of Charles Algernon Sidney Vivian Founder of the Elks, by his wife Imogen Vivian.
