From Our Exalted Ruler

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

As we approach the end of 2022, we look forward to ringing in the new year! Before we do, please join us to honor our departed brothers and sisters from this past year at the Lodge of Sorrows scheduled on December 1st in an Open Meeting which provides for friends and families are welcome to attend. We also look forward to celebrating the holidays with all of you at our Black-Tie Casino Night Dec 3, the 51st Anniversary Christmas Tree Lane events Dec 4, decorating the Elks float on Dec 10 & 28th, the annual Eggnog Party & Ugly Sweater Contest on Dec 24, and of course, the New Year's Eve dinner and dance.

We also have opportunities this month to demonstrate Elks Charity with our Special Child Christmas Party, the Operation Santa Claus toy drive for local underprivileged children, the Vets committee adopt a family, and more.

The holiday season is so wondrous. One of my all-time Christmas moves is the beloved Christmas classic "It's a Wonderful Life". It is filled with wonderful quotes that make it a heartwarming part of the holiday season. A big theme in the movie that aligns with Elks' cardinal principle Charity is that money does not dictate how rich a person is, but rather the positive impact they have on those around them.

I wish peace and joy to you and your family this holiday season!

Fraternally Yours,

Marie P. Nunez
Exalted Ruler

From Our Leading Knight

Merry Christmas!!

Hard to believe that the holiday season is upon us! I love everything about Christmas, Christmas lights, yard decorations, and the joy of the holiday season. Christmas is a time of celebration. Take time out of the hustle and bustle of the holiday season and give a gift to yourself, it doesn't have to be expensive or complicated. Enjoy lunch with a friend, take a walk on the beach, or deck out your house with Christmas Decorations (my personal favorite). Whatever you choose to do, it will bring you joy!

I look forward to spending time with my family and friends this Christmas season and winning the "Best Decorated House" in my neighborhood.

Diana & I wish everyone a Merry and Blessed Christmas!

Fraternally,
Brian T. Mc Namara

"Santa Claus is anyone who loves another and seeks to make them happy; who gives himself by thought or word or deed in every gift that he bestows." Edwin Osgood Grover

CHARITY

From Our Loyal Knight

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

In 1917 the Grand Exalted Ruler was Fred Harper and he penned an article titled General Character of the Order. In it, he says of our Order, "It therefore seeks to draw into its fraternal circle only those who delight in wholesome associations with congenial companions; who are deeply imbued with the spirit of patriotic loyalty and devotion; who recognize the obligations of human brotherhood; and who desire, without fanfare or the trumpets of publicity, to share with their associates in the endeavor to feed the hungry, to relieve those in distress, and to prove themselves true friends to all."

In just one sentence Mr. Harper (PGER), reminds us that we are to be congenial to our fellow Elks and charitable to our fellow man. At times, the latter can come easier than the former. But these were the character traits of an Elk in 1868 and still are today. As we prepare to move into a new year, may we keep in mind that our fellow Elks are our Fraternal Brothers and Sisters, whom we share a set of core values that includes a love of country, a desire to help those in need and a rich history with those who came before us.

Fraternally,
Bill Swaim
Esteemed Loyal Knight

JUSTICE

From Our Lecturing Knight

Proud to be a Veteran

Being a military veteran means you sacrificed years of your life for the privilege of obeying orders from those of higher rank than you. It meant performing seemingly endless numbers of push-ups and sit-ups or hiking countless miles while wearing a too heavy rucksack. It meant drills (and/or grass drills); shooting ranges, GI parties (party favors for those were sponges, brooms and mops), and of course field trips (more times than not, in the rain or cold). It meant mind-numbing hours on guard duty or kitchen patrol. If you managed to earn yourself extra duty; by breaking one or more of the numerous regulations, then you had up to 22 hours a day of the same mind-numbing work, followed by a 'generous' 2 hours of sleep. Then you did it all again the next day.

Being a U.S. military veteran also means you were willing to fight and die in service to this country. It meant being separated from friends, family and loved ones. It meant giving up control of your life to others and having to trust your well-being to them. It meant risking life and limb and potential (permanent) injury, either to complete a mission, help your buddies fighting alongside you or just in doing what you were supposed to do. It meant you took an oath to 'Support and Defend the Constitution of the United States'... and lived up to your part of the bargain. Since there is no longer a military draft in this country, it meant you voluntarily signed up.

SUNDAY BRUNCH

Our Sunday Brunch Chairs, Pete Murrieta and Bill Swaim, would like to express our deep and sincere appreciation to all our brunch volunteers who were here for our November brunch. Without the help of our volunteers, we could not make this happen. Thank you so much for making this a fun, productive and charitable event.

Sincerely and fraternally yours
Sunday Brunch.

October Special Child: Josh Sackett

Each month, Fullerton Elks Lodge 1993 selects a special needs child and honors that child with items necessary for their care and comfort. We consider this one of the most important charitable things the Lodge can perform.

We are happy to be able to help a new family every month. Please join us in celebrating Josh!

Fullerton Hilltoppers Camping Club News

We had a fantastic weekend at our November campout in Chula Vista with our Hilltopper Family! Wagon Masters, Jim and Jamie Aksel did a fabulous job organizing food, games and fun for the outing. It was especially wonderful to be joined by past Hilltoppers Rob & Carol Roberts! Rob is healthy and they are ready to start camping again in their new motorhome! We were also joined by new Elk members Rick & Georgia Danenhauer. Welcome to the Hilltoppers! What a great addition to our Club they are.

The weekend was filled with games, puzzles, Bunco & Poker fundraisers for Christmas Tree Lane, our 2nd Annual Cornhole Tournament and of course after dinner trivia, jokes and more games!!

The food this weekend prepared, by loving hands, was truly with Italian and "Friendsgiving" feasts!

The 1st Edition of the Hilltopper Camper Cookbook with all our favorite recipes is now printed and spiral bound. They are available for $20 to help cover the printing costs. Please contact Carolyn or Jamie (Jamie.aksel@gmail.com) if you would like to purchase one.

If you are interested in joining our Camping Club, please contact Carolyn Rosenberg at (714) 993-1209 or FullertonHilltoppers@gmail.com.

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Shining a Light on Our Volunteers

Thank You Volunteers

This month's Volunteer Spotlight shines on all of our volunteers. The Elks exist on volunteerism. Without each and every one of our volunteers, we as a non-profit service organization would not be able to live up to one of our core principles, Charity, nor maintain our non-profit classification. It is through the dedication of Lodge members that we are able to serve our community's charitable needs and Elks Charities throughout the year. Our volunteers are an essential and extremely valuable resource and their help is sincerely appreciated.

At Fullerton Elks Lodge, volunteers help with Bingo, Sunday Brunches, Friday night dinners, Veterans services, community impact events, a Food Drive, Purple Pig or ENF fundraisers, one of our Lodge clubs, as a Greeter, as a Lodge Program Chairman or committee person, as a Lodge Officer, or at Lodge events. Any and all time allocated to volunteer helps our Lodge thrive and advances our presence to our community, especially as a resource for programs serving those in need. If you have not yet volunteered, please consider including in your New Year's resolution to give any one of these volunteer opportunities a try and make a difference. The following quotes help express the impact of our willingness to volunteer and be of service for others:

"The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others."

– Gandhi

"Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much.."

– Helen Keller

For more volunteer opportunities contact Cory Brown kg6ep@verizon.net or Irene Marciano 714-507-5793.

Halloween Trunk of Treat

Fullerton Elks Lodge Hosts "Trunk or Treat" Event
The Lodge hosted a community Trunk or Treat event on October 30th and invited special needs children that the Lodge has sponsored. The Lodge's Special Child program recognizes special needs children and their families throughout the year. This event provided a safe environment for these kids to wear costumes and visit several costumed Lodge members' and cars that had been decorated. It was a fun event for the children as well as the Elks who participated. About 20 members helped to make this event a success, demonstrating that Elks are here for the community.

Halloween Party

Our Halloween Party was a spooktacular success! So many fabulous costumes, dancing throughout the night to great music by Dave Alcantar band, an amazing trick o treat candy and dessert bar, and a fun conga line costume parade. Our costume contest winners were: Best Woman's costume -Joanne Mathieson (scary unknown man) Best Male costume- Lance Nieves (Astronaut) Best Couple Costume- Sue & Butch Dandema (Laurel & Hardy) Honorable mention- Mary Gordon's grandsons (pumpkin heads) Thank you to all our volunteers who helped create this fun event including: Gloria Pimentel, Blaire Bradley, Aileen & Ruben Gomez, Alex Nuñez, Scott Broadbent, Karen Seeley, Craig & Judy Lawson, Mary Pat Montigny & Shirley Thiele. And thank you to Chris Grim for all your help.

Veterans Corner

We participated in Trunk or Treat for the children of CLR-17 and 1MLG at Camp Pendleton. We also provided treat bags for the children of the 5th Marines. Thank you to everyone who provided candy and to the volunteers who help to fill the treat bags.

We helped serve 1,000 hotdogs and other food to Marines and Sailors who deployed from Camp Pendleton.

Thank you Steve, Kristen, Ethan and Adam Vartanian for sponsoring the Veterans Service Committee's Christmas tree. The tree was sponsored in honor of Steve's father, Army veteran Adolph "Rudy" Vartanian and LTC James Moore, US Army, Retired, father of Steve's business partner Terry Short.

National Wreaths Across America Day is Saturday, December 17. Join us at Memory Garden Memorial Park, 455 W. Central Avenue, Brea for a memorial ceremony at 9:00 a.m. After the ceremony we will place wreaths on the graves of Veterans. Let's have a strong showing of Fullerton Elks. Wear a purple shirt if you have one.

We wish you a blessed and peaceful holiday season. As you gather for your celebrations with family and friends, remember those who are far from home serving our country.
