From Our Exalted Ruler

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

As the sun sets on another year, may it rise again and shine light on new opportunities, perspectives, and adventures ahead!

Our January calendar is loaded with many fun adventures. We kick off with a Bar 1993 night with country music and fantastic bar bites. Our Hoop Shoot contest follows to help kids find positive alternatives to drugs. Our annual new year Food Drive will be January 20th. This is followed by our Reverse Drawing and Purple Pig Bowling event. We wrap up the month with the Purple Pig Races which is loads of fun for everyone!

It is good to know where we came from in order to understand and stay in keeping with why our fraternal order is beneficial for us and our community. Did you know?...The moving spirit for the Elks was an Englishman named Charles Algernon Sidney Vivian who was a successful comic singer and dancer in the music halls of London?

Shining the light of Elkdom

In November 1867, Vivian arrived in New York City and formed a group of theatrical people who called themselves the Jolly Corks. When one of their members died shortly before Christmas in 1867, leaving his wife and children destitute, the Jolly Corks decided that in addition to good fellowship, they needed a more enduring organization to serve those in need. On February 16, 1868, they established the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and elected Vivian to head it. Its social activities and benefit performances increased the popularity of the new Order. May we all work together to ring in the 155th birthday of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks next month by focusing on this wonderful balance of social activities and serving those in need.

Wishing you a happy, healthy New Year.

Fraternally Yours,

Marie P. Nunez
Exalted Ruler

From Our Leading Knight

I love ringing in the new year, especially with fireworks! I always make a few New Years' resolutions, some I remake year after year and some are new. The legend of New Year's Resolution started with the Roman God Janus, who had two faces; one looking forward and one looking backward. This allowed him to see the past and the future. On December 31st, the Romans imagined Janus looking backward into the old year and forward into the new year. This date became symbolic to the Romans to make personal goals for the new year and forgive enemies for the troubles in the past year.

Today, in 2023, the purpose of a New Year Resolution is to improve your life in the coming year. Resolutions can take many forms, some to correct a bad habit, others to develop a positive habit, such as volunteering. I encourage everyone to make one of your resolutions, to volunteer at our Lodge. We have plenty of opportunities & it's a great opportunity to make new friends.

Happy New Year and I hope to see you all volunteering in 2023!

Fraternally,
Brian T. Mc Namara

CHARITY

From Our Loyal Knight

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

As 2022 has come to a close, I would like to thank all of our great volunteers that lent their time and effort over the past year to ensure the success of our lodge. Without our great volunteers we would not be able to host all of the dinners, special events, fundraisers, and outreach programs to help our veterans, disabled children, and those in our community in need of assistance. Each one of you proves over and over that BPOE truly means Best People on Earth and I am extremely grateful for all of you.

I would also like to thank our Lodge Officers who served this past year and especially our Esquire Blaire Bradley, who went above and beyond. Her efforts were instrumental in the success of our lodge over the past year and her contributions cannot be overstated. Now February elections are almost here and provided I get the votes, I will move on to serve as your Leading Knight, following in the footsteps of my father Bill Swaim Sr. and my grandfather H.L. Swaim (PDDGER).

As of April 1st many of our officer positions will term out and the void will need to be filled by those in our lodge who are willing to step up into a leadership position. If you have ever considered it, now is the time, as elections will be held next month. Rest assured I will be there to assist you in any way I can.

Fraternally,
Bill Swaim

JUSTICE

From Our Lecturing Knight

Leaders value virtuousness and honesty. They have people who believe in them and their vision. Inspiration: Leaders are self-motivating, and this makes them great influencers. They are a good inspiration to their followers. They help others to understand their roles in a bigger context. Communication skills: Leaders possess great communication skills. They are transparent with their team and share failures and successes with them. Vision: Leaders are visionaries. They have a clear idea of what they want and how to achieve it. Being good communicators, leaders can share their vision with the team successfully. Never give-up spirit: Leaders challenge the status quo. Hence, they never give up easily. They also have unique ways to solve a problem. Intuitive: Leadership coach Hortense le Gentil believes that leaders should rely on intuition for making hard decisions. Especially because intuition heavily relies on a person's existing knowledge and life learnings, which proves to be more useful in complex situations. Empathy: A leader should be an emotional and empathetic fellow because it will help them in developing a strong bond with their team. Furthermore, these qualities will help a leader in addressing the problems, complaints, and aspirations of his team members. Objective: Although empathy is an important quality a leader must imbibe, getting clouded by emotions while making an important business decision is not advisable. Hence, a good leader should be objective. Intelligence: A good leader must be intelligent enough to arrive at business solutions to difficult problems. Furthermore, a leader should be analytical and should weigh the pros and cons before making a decision.

Fullerton Hilltoppers Camping Club News

It is the season for giving, and the Fullerton Hilltoppers have been busy supporting lodge events. A group of Hilltopper volunteers served dinner at a Monday Night Football event at the lodge in mid-November raising money for our lodge and ENF. Joe and I would like to thank Jim & Jamie; Don & Carol; Mark & Cindy, Don & Becky and Anton for giving of their time & services!

The club sponsored a Christmas Tree with many wonderful gifts at the annual Christmas Tree Lane. With donations from the club members our tree was surrounded by bikes, Fitbits, fire rings, folding chairs & a table, a drill set along with many games and picnic items. The winners were thrilled to win it!

The clubs held its annual meeting at the lodge. It was well attended by our members who helped layout the tentative camping schedule for 2024. The current board was reelected for the upcoming year. Last years Wagon Masters received "thank you" gifts from Carolyn & Jamie for volunteering to host an event. We wish you all a joyous and Happy New Year!

If you are interested in joining our Camping Club, please contact Carolyn Rosenberg at (714) 993-1209 or FullertonHilltoppers@gmail.com

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Shining a Light on Our Volunteers

JOHN & CAROL SIBLEY

Member Since: May 2021

Reside: Placentia, CA

Lodge Volunteer Activities: Bingo, Greeter, Sunday Brunch, First Wednesday Dinner Team,
and Christmas Tree Lane

This month's Spotlight shines a light on member John Sibley and his wife Carol who typically volunteer as a pair since joining our lodge. For Bingo, John now volunteers weekly and Carol is on bingo's green team every five weeks. Additionally, they help at various Lodge events, have tutored at Solidarity (a Lodge's community partner), and are "on-call" as back-up when needed. Being involved in their community is very important to them and they are happy to have found and joined the Elks. When not at the Lodge, they enjoy being active by going to the gym & bicycling and have a goal of also taking up pickleball while now retired.

They have 3 adult sons and 8 grandchildren (ages 7 to 25). Their eldest grandchild is a second-year medical student. Both John and Carol also volunteer at their church as ushers and greeters and have a history of volunteering (e.g., Placentia Women's Civic Club, Orange's "Field of Valor" for Veterans).

Prior to retirement, John held senior executive positions at the County of Orange for 24 years, and then was the City Manager for the City of Orange from 2001-2015. Carol worked for the Placentia-Linda School District for 15 years as a fifth-grade teacher, retiring in 2010. They both celebrate the opportunity to give back, and enjoy getting to know our Lodge members and guests through volunteering. Their advice – helping at the Lodge allows you to make new acquaintances which they highly encourage!

Mystery Bus Rally for Literacy

Fullerton Elks Lodge #1993 members hosted a fantastic Mystery Bus Rally for Literacy on November 19th which successfully collected 37 books and raised $486 towards more book purchases. These books are targeted to 'Flip the Ratio' by providing books to disadvantaged Fullerton children to own and enjoy in their homes, build lifelong love of reading, and enhance education.

Members were also encouraged to dress up in children book characters while they enjoyed visiting Elks Lodges; Redondo Beach #1378, San Pedro #1748, and Culver City #1917.

Children book characters shown are Madeline (Blair Bradley), Bonnie Bradley as nun, & Marie Nuñez, If You Give a Mouse a Cookie (Karen Seeley) & Cookie Monster (Alex Nuñez).

LAST PAPER BUGLE WAS DECEMBER

Bugle printing was costing the Lodge over $7200 annually. All Lodge members with an email address have been converted to electronic delivery. If you require a paper copy, please contact the Lodge Secretary, Karen Seeley at 714-870-1993 or bpoe1993@sbcglobal.net to arrange for US Mail delivery of the Bugle on an exception basis. Grand Lodge Statute 16.150 allows the lodge to email this publication. Those with no email on file will continue to receive a paper copy.

Thank you for your understanding as this frees additional funds for the Lodge to give to our charities.

If you hear someone saying they have not received their paper Bugle, please refer them to their e-mail, and to call the office to confirm correct addresses (e-mail and home).
