From Our Exalted Ruler

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

We, as Elks, take the role of our military members, especially our Veterans very seriously. I am sure all of you know the Elks pledge "So long as there are veterans, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will never forget them." Fullerton Elks are part of thousands of Elks that give generously of their time, energy and resources to serve veterans and military members each day, to ensure that pledge is not an idle one. This Memorial Day, join us in giving our respects to our fallen military personnel.

The Elks National Memorial is a tribute to the bravery, loyalty and dedication of the thousands of Elks who have fought and died for our country. It is located in our national headquarters in Chicago and has been described as one of the most magnificent war memorials in the world, but with its monumental architecture and priceless art, the Memorial is more a symbol of peace and of the patriotism of the members of the Elks fraternity.

Fraternally Yours,

Brian McNamara
Exalted Ruler

From Our Leading Knight

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

During the initiation ritual, the Leading Knights instructions to new members states that, "we teach not alone the charity of alms, but the higher and nobler charity of thought, word and deed." There are many old words used in the ritual and alms, is one of them. It means to donate money, food, or other items to charity. All of these things are vital to our charitable endeavors, but our good deeds, meaning the time we put in to give back, is a higher and nobler charity. This is because writing a check, or donating some canned goods is easy. But showing up and volunteering takes time, and our time is valuable, because it is limited. We cannot slow it down or go back and relive it. So often it goes without notice, until one day we look in the mirror and wonder how it passed so quickly. Eventually, we will all run out of it, and how we are remembered will most likely be determined by how we spent it. Were we kind and considerate, did those we came in contact with benefit from knowing us, and was the world a better place because we were in it? The answers to those questions can be determined by our own actions. As Elks, we are given numerous opportunities to help others, to give back to our community and make the world a better place. In the coming year, I challenge all our members to set aside at least one day to volunteer and be involved in one of our many lodge events. I guarantee it will be time well spent.

Fraternally,

Bill Swaim

From Our Loyal Knight

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Being an officer and being a leader at your Elk lodge you have to multitask every single day.

Every morning make a list of things that you need to complete that day. Preferably, start off by writing them down in a diary. Research shows that written goals are better than unwritten ones since they provide you with more clarity and also free up your mind helping you pull up your thinking to the things that you need to focus your attention on. Atleast, as far as work is concern.

Before you take on a task, know its importance and how it would affect your day if you took it up on priority. Prioritising your tasks will help you get the important and crucial activities out of your way first. This will then create time for the minor things which can be accomplished in a comparatively lesser time and would require lower levels of focus.

Fraternally,
George Neri
Esteemed Loyal Knight

From Our Lecturing Knight

My Fellow Brother and Sister Elks,

This station is dedicated to Brotherly Love. As many of you are aware our volunteers are serving or cashiering on Tuesday Tacos, Wednesday dinners, Friday dinners, brunch, bingo and all our lodge events. How can you help our hard -working volunteers? By simple volunteer courtesy. If you move tables and chairs, please put them back the way they were before moved to accommodate your group, push your chairs in, take bar glasses back to the bar, if you are celebrating a birthday, etc, bring paper plates and cutlery we will gladly cut and serve your cake, and above all as so very many already do "Thank" our volunteers.

Let us come together in the name of Brotherly Love, share our stories, smiles and laughs, meet and greet our new members and guests from other lodges and enjoy our times together as time passes us by so fast.

Each and every one of you are wonderful part of our Elk Family. I know I could not represent a better group of Elk Family members for each of you have touched my life and the lives of others and are greatly appreciated.

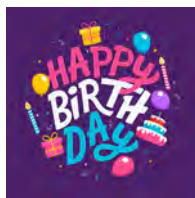

Yours in Brotherly Love

OFFICIAL MEETING NOTICE

The Fullerton Elks annual Building Corporation Meeting will be held on Tuesday May 23, 2023 at 7:00 PM
1400 Elks View Lane, Fullerton, California

Election of members and 7 voting officers will be held

This meeting is open to all members in good standing with the Fullerton Elks Lodge
#1993

Do you have plans to ensure that your loved ones are taken care of after you're gone?

You know me and trust that I will always have your back. Will your loved ones get that same great service when you're gone? Or will they just grab the 1st agent with a flashy mailer and hope for the best?

I want you to know that I will always protect your family, if given the chance. A dear friend of mine just put in his Will, that his surviving family will have one less thing to worry about when he passes – like trying to find a trusted realtor during this mournful time in their lives.

Would you consider doing the same?
Then let me know so I can show my appreciation.

Fullerton Hilltoppers Camping Club News

The club marched into the Rancho Jurupa Campground for their "March madness" outing. While the Spring weather on Thursday gave us some slight sprinkles, the weekend followed with blue skies and sunshine. Games with a basketball theme provided some fun along with the usual competitive game of Bocce Ball, Skru your neighbor and Five Crowns. There is always plenty to eat at the outings and this event was no exception.

The evenings were filled with roaring fires and campfire stories. Lost keys and stuck doors added some drama, but what happens at Jurupa stays at Jurupa! The Easter Basket raffle to benefit Christmas Tree Lane was won by Georgia Danenhauer and the 50/50 raffle for CHEMPI was won by Gigi Maidlow.

Thank you to all who joined us at this event and for helping with the tent "tear down"! Many hands make work light!

If you are interested in joining our Camping Club, please contact Carolyn Rosenberg at (714) 993-1209 or FullertonHilltoppers@gmail.com
