From Our Exalted Ruler

Being born in another county and becoming a naturalized citizen, I am proud to be an American and celebrate this great country's birthday!!

Join us at the Lodge to celebrate America's birthday on the 4th of July. It will be a day filled with fun, food, and exciting activities.

Did you know that the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia is tapped 13 times every July 4th in honor of the original 13 colonies? Additionally, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson both passed away on this day in 1826. Americans spend over $1 billion on fireworks annually, and the Star Spangled Banner became our national anthem in 1931. Coney Island, New York, also hosts a famous hot-dog-eating contest that's televised every year on July 4th.

If you're interested in flag etiquette, including the 4th of July rules, the U.S. Flag Code provides guidelines.

Lastly, Americans consume approximately 150 million hot dogs every July 4th.

The Annual BPOE National Convention will be taking place in Minneapolis, Minnesota during the first week of July. Diana and I will represent Fullerton Lodge well and will bring back information to share with you all.

Fraternally,
Brian Mc Namara
Exalted Ruler

May New Members

Mike Rylaarsdam, Brian Fortenbaugh, Walker Smith, Curtis Chan, Liz Esqueda, and Kathy Simpson

Thank You to our Orientation Volunteers!

In May the Lodge welcomed six new members. At the Orientation that was held in late May, several Lodge members responded to the request to assist in the interview process. This was of great help to the Lodge Officers and to your Lodge Orientation Chairman, so a big THANK YOU is extended to all who helped. We will again be interviewing candidates in late June and another request for member assistance will be sent out. This is an opportunity to volunteer for your Lodge and let potential new members know about the great work that Elks do for the community!

From Our Leading Knight

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In the editorial section of the 1937 June issue of The Elks Magazine, it stated "Charity, the cardinal virtue of the Order of Elks, manifests itself in many ways and in a multitude of activities. The Ritual classifies charity as of thought, word and deed. Not to minimize the importance of the other two, the charity of deed is perhaps the most practical and helpful."

The writer then goes on to speak of the importance of blood transfusions and the thousands of lives that are saved because of those that donate blood. The article ends with, "we can think of no more practical and helpful charity of deed."

What was true in 1937 is still true today and this month our Past Elk of the Year, Darren Baker, will once again, be hosting our Annual Blood Drive Saturday July 29th, from 9 to 3pm. Check out the flyer in this month's Bugle for all the details on how to register. By doing so you will put your charity of deed into action and save lives.

Elks Care,
Fraternally,

Bill Swaim
Esteemed Leading Knight

CHARITY

From Our Loyal Knight

Learning ways to see and approach certain people

As soon as I enter a room, I scan it and everyone inside. I am a noticer and pretty intuitive, so I pick up on things quite easily. How someone is standing can tell you quite a lot about them. If someone is standing hunched with their arms crossed, you can probably make a well-educated guess based on their expression whether or not they are introverted or just pissed off. However, if someone is standing with their feet slightly apart, with their hands out and down (more by their hip area) I see them as more open and carefree.

The easiest one. Frowning? Pissed. Smiling? Yup. Those are the most identifiable ones. But no one is that black-and-white.

Here are the more advanced expressions to recognize, which incorporate body language. I can tell fairly easily whether or not someone's smile and laugh are real or fake. Using their body language and expression together, it's pretty simple. Look at how they are standing and see if it matches their expression. If they're standing in any of the ways I said indicated annoyance or sadness or introvertedness, yet they are smiling and laughing, that is a tip that they're faking it. Another thing I use is their eyes. People express most of their true emotions in their eyes. It's hard to hide things that way, and people like me who are good at reading people know this is the oldest trick in the book.

Fraternally,

George Neri
Esteemed Loyal Knight

JUSTICE

From Our Lecturing Knight

I hope you all have a safe and memorable 2023 summer! Hope to see you enjoying activities at our lodge and of course volunteering!

A big "Thank You" to our Leading Knight" Bill Swaim for his wonderful article on my Grandson Nate. Thank you for sharing his condition and loving Nate.

I would like to encourage everyone to attend our "DocTalk" Medical series held the 3rd Wednesday of the month at 11 AM on various topics. Information on the topics will be sent via Constant Contact, our Facebook page and flyers at our lodge. Last month I shared the first paragraph of the "Brotherly Love Ritual Charge" and received several positive comments. Let me share the next couple of paragraphs! The last sentence in the previous paragraph ended in "thus conforming to the Golden Rule which should govern all mankind" continuing with the 2nd and 3rd paragraphs.

In this rule which is the foundation and groundwork of our order Brotherly Love finds its perfect expression and it is best exemplified by practicing teachings of our motto "The faults of our members we write upon the sand their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory." It softens the stern realities of life and manifests itself in good fellowship, in sympathy and in kindness of thought, word and deed. It has smiles and laughter for us in seasons of joy, and it sits with us in the shadow and weeps in the hour of bereavement. It teaches us to scatter flowers along life's pathway and to speak words of kindness to the living and well as to cherish the memory of the dead. Next month the last paragraph will be shared.

In Brotherly Love,
Irene Marciano
Lecturing Knight

Do you have plans to ensure that your loved ones are taken care of after you're gone?

You know me and trust that I will always have your back. Will your loved ones get that same great service when you're gone? Or will they just grab the 1st agent with a flashy mailer and hope for the best?

I want you to know that I will always protect your family, if given the chance. A dear friend of mine just put in his Will, that his surviving family will have one less thing to worry about when he passes – like trying to find a trusted realtor during this mournful time in their lives.

Would you consider doing the same?
Then let me know so I can show my appreciation.

Fullerton Hilltoppers Camping Club News

The Hilltoppers spent a nice weekend at the Yucaipa Regional Park Campground in May. Campers enjoyed walks, bike rides, fishing, campfires and, as always, games! Some made side trips to the Apple Area located north of the campground. We welcomed new Elk & camper members, Alex and Joselyn to our camping family!

Even without a Wagon Master, the club members came together for meals. Members, Gigi & Kathy, join us for the day on Saturday. There were many laughs playing, "Pass the Trash" and "Relative Insanity" along with Mexican Trains, a club favorite. Our lone fisherman, Chuck, enjoyed catching Trout and Catfish.

In the evenings, we gathered around a campfire. Every night we had an unexpected visitor fly over us landing on the tall trees. Can you guess "Hoo, Hoot", that might be? You just had to be there to enjoy it!

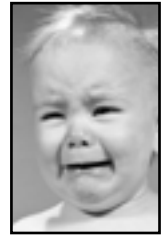

If you are interested in joining our Camping Club, please contact Carolyn Rosenberg at (714) 993-1209 or FullertonHilltoppers@gmail.com
