1400 ELKS VIEW LANE, FULLERTON

From Our Lecturing Knight

As the representative of the station Brotherly Love, I must address a situation that occurred at our lodge recently. Every February, the trustees throw a party for the Superbowl, and this year was no exception. The flyer advertising the event asked that attendees pay $10 for hamburgers and hotdogs, and they were also asked to bring something to share with everyone. We had over 130 participants come and enjoy the food that the trustees provided, but there were only fifteen to twenty items brought to share with everyone. Most of the items brought to “share” were kept on the tables to be shared amongst small groups. Did everyone forget how a potluck works? Over the years, this lodge has always been generous with bringing chips and crackers, salads and sides, desserts, and all sorts of goodies. What happened? How did we, as a lodge, become so stingy? It disheartened me to see people keeping snacks at their tables and not sharing with everyone. The theme of the Rose Parade float this year was, Elks Care Elks Share. You sure couldn’t tell that the Fullerton Elks Lodge represents that ideal if you attended this year’s Superbowl party. I have never been so disappointed by a group of Elks as I was at this party. Maybe we need to schedule some potlucks in the future to relearn how to share with everyone ,and not just your small group of friends. With that said, I must say there was one thing that was much better this year than in years past, and that was the Chili Cook Off. There were many more participants, and the attendees were able to enjoy the chili that members brought to enter into the competition. Due to my profound disappointment, I will be asking our incoming Exalted Ruler if we can schedule a few potlucks so that we can give this another try.

GOOD TIMES HAD BY ALL!

Sickness and Distress

Susie Myers shared that donations were provided to the Long Beach Veterans Community Center and were well received. She also asked for prayer for Ron McKorkle who fell and broke both of his hips in December.

Toni Conlon is feeling down. Prayers are appreciated.

Alex Nunez' sister- in-law passed. Prayers for the family are needed.

Chris Jaramillo son was in an auto accident and suffered hip displacement. Prayers are appreciated.

Susie Myers cousin, John, who is a Vietnam Vet has a collapsed lung. Prayers are appreciated.

Lisa Pacheco's husband, Jeff, had Stem Cell transplant, and the results are not as hoped for. Please keep Jeff in your prayers.

Chris Jaramillo's surgery went well and he is recovering.

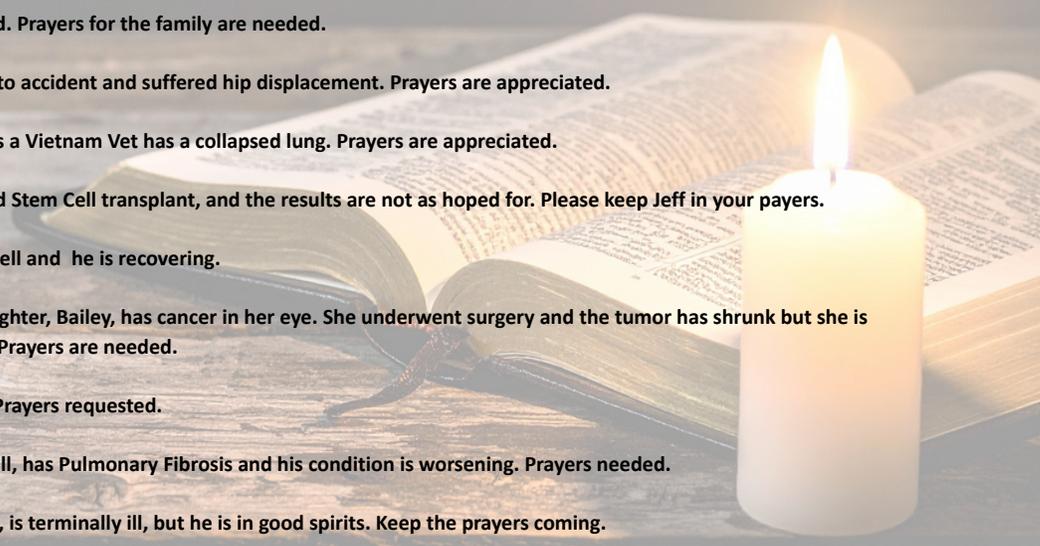

Colleen Wadsworth's grand-daughter, Bailey, has cancer in her eye. She underwent surgery and the tumor has shrunk but she is suffering with impaired vision. Prayers are needed.

Bill Mashong is in the hospital. Prayers requested.

Cathy Capp's brother-in- law, Will, has Pulmonary Fibrosis and his condition is worsening. Prayers needed.

Luis Cruz's longtime friend, Alex, is terminally ill, but he is in good spirits. Keep the prayers coming.

Ilce Cuevas' mother was in the hospital in critical condition. She has since passed. Please keep the family in your prayers.
